Localisation

Discover Marche-en-Famenne. Situated at the crossroads of the provinces of Liège, Namur and Luxembourg, this central destination will win you over with its many assets.

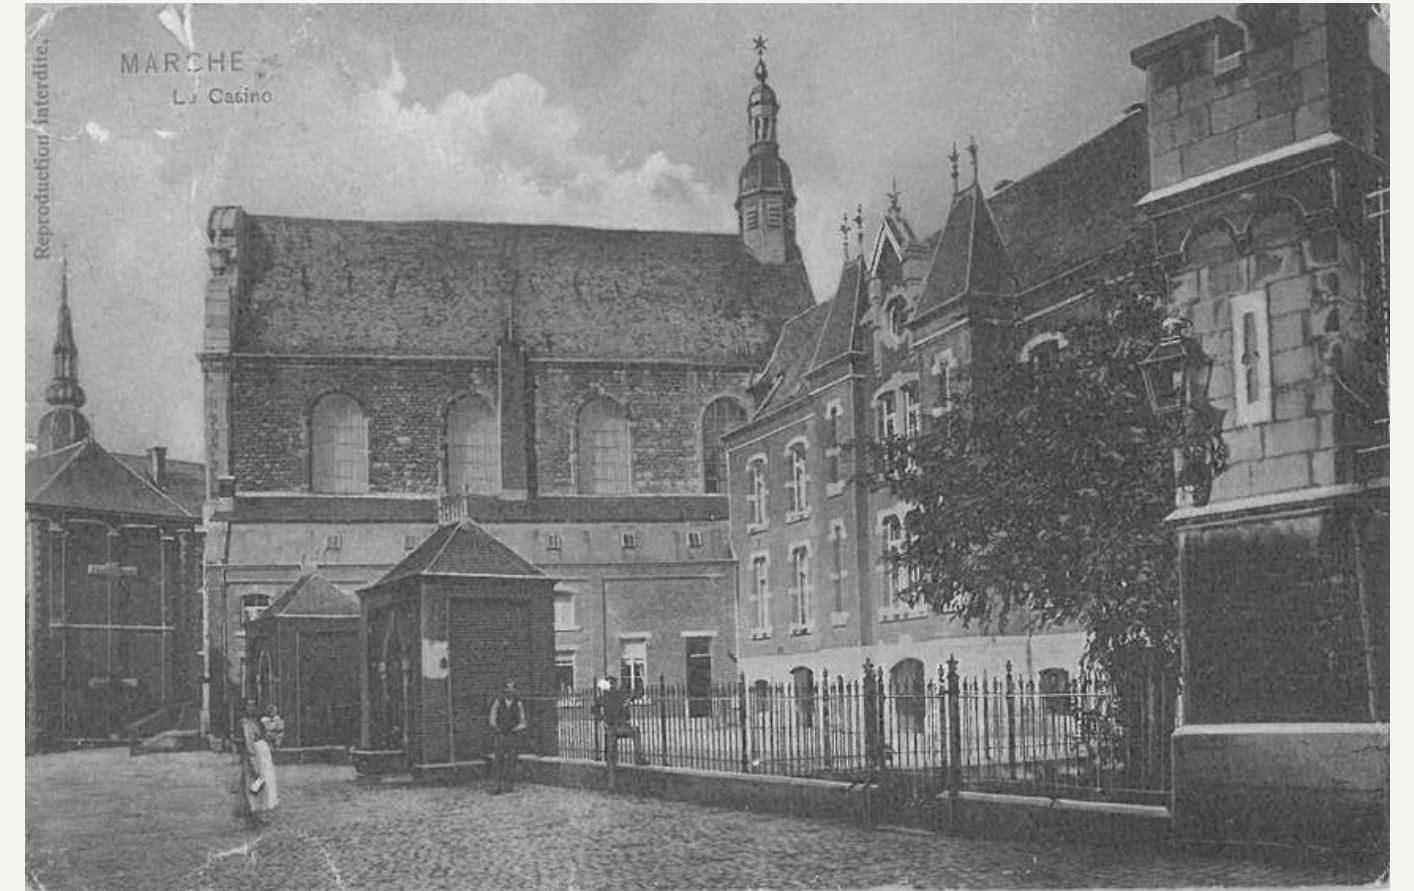

A former Jesuit church in the heart of Marche-en-Famenne

Ideally located in the heart of Marche-en-Famenne, the hotel-restaurant-spa Quartier Latin is a 4-star hotel complex within the walls of a listed 18th-century Jesuit church.

Formerly a Jesuit church, but also a fire station, a casino and a field hospital, this building classified by the Commission for Monuments and Sites has become a hotel since 1993.

A team of 70 welcomes you in a warm and welcoming environment.

Marche-en-Famenne is a small town of 17,000 inhabitants, at the crossroads of several major roads such as the N4, the N63 and the N86. Surrounded by forests, it is the ideal place to recharge your batteries in the countryside, while remaining easily accessible via the main roads.

Terms and conditions
